PADI SEAL TEAM STATEMENT OF RISKS AND LIABILITY

Please read carefully and fill in all blanks before signing.

This is a statement in which you are informed of the risks of skin and scuba diving. The statement also sets out the circumstances in which your child participates in the diving programme at your child's own risk.

Your signature on this statement is required as proof that you and your child have received and read this statement. It is important that you read the contents of this statement before signing it. If you do not understand anything contained in this statement, then please discuss it with your child's instructor.

WARNING

Skin and scuba diving have inherent risks which may result in serious injury or death.

Diving with compressed air involves certain inherent risks; decompression sickness, embolism or other hyperbaric injury can occur that require treatment in a recompression chamber and your child will be exposed to these risks.

SEAL TEAM STATEMENT (PADI International Ltd)

Skin and scuba diving are physically strenuous activities and your child will be exerting themselves during this diving programme. You must advise truthfully and fully inform the dive professionals and the facility through which this programme is offered of your child's medical history.

The PADI Seal Team programme is a series of AquaMissions which will be conducted in a swimming pool. My child may choose to participate in one or all of these AquaMissions. These AquaMissions include, but are not limited to, five (5) core AquaMissions involving the introduction of basic dive skills and ten (10) speciality AquaMissions including Creature ID Specialist, Environmental Specialist, Inner Space Specialist, Navigation Specialist, Night Specialist, Search and Recovery Specialist, Skin Diver Specialist, Snapshot Specialist, Team Safety Specialist and Wreck Specialist.

This Statement also encompasses and applies to all the PADI Seal Team AquaMissions, as described above, in which my child chooses to participate.

EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

I understand and agree that neither the dive professionals conducting this programme, Staff Of Scuba Courses, nor the facility through which this programme is conducted, Scuba Courses, nor PADI International Ltd., nor PADI Americas, Inc., nor their affiliate or subsidiary corporations, nor any of their respective employees, officers, agents or assigns (hereinafter referred to as "Released Parties") accept any responsibility for any death, injury or other loss suffered or caused by me or resulting from my own conduct or any matter or condition under my control that amounts to my own contributory negligence.

In the absence of any negligence or other breach of duty by the dive professionals conducting this programme, Staff Of Scuba Courses, the facility through which this programme is offered, Scuba Courses, PADI International Ltd., PADI Americas, Inc., and all related entities and released parties as defined above, my participation in this diving programme is entirely at my own risk.

I acknowledge receipt of this Statement and have read all of the terms before signing this Statement.

Scuba Courses Learning Agreement

This document must be read and agreed to prior to the commencement of your course/experience with Scuba Courses.

Diver training is meant to be fun and exciting, but like any form of learning, you will need to invest some time and effort to make the most of your course. To offer you the best program possible, please review the following and sign at the bottom of this form to confirm your agreement.

This learning agreement between you the 'Student', and us, 'Scuba Courses' reviews our mutual course responsibilities.

Student Responsibilities

The theory segment of your PADI dive course is based on home study. Review sessions with an instructor are designed to answer questions, and review key points, NOT AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR INDEPENDENT HOME STUDY.

By signing below, you are agreeing to:

- Review & complete all course enrolment paperwork and study your PADI Course Materials
- Have medical form signed by a physician (if necessary) before your course start date. Your course may be cancelled, rescheduled, or delayed if any required medical approval is not received by Scuba Courses before the course start date. This may result in additional costs as outlined below.
- Be on time for all course dates. Late arrival may result in cancellation or rescheduling of your course at an additional cost to you.
- Be prepared for theory sessions by reading/reviewing the required coursework as indicated by Scuba Courses staff.
- Complete all required knowledge reviews in your PADI Course materials BEFORE your theory session.
- Arrive for pool and/or open water dives in good time, allowing time to get changed.
- Follow all pool, open water and course procedures as outlined by your instructor(s) and in your enrolment paperwork and be attentive during your training sessions.
- Ask questions about anything that is not understood.

Missed / Rearranged Sessions

Due to the nature of the course structure, it is important that all course dates are attended, in the correct sequence. Unless prior arrangements have been made & confirmed in writing with Scuba Courses, students will incur the following rearrangement charges.

- £25 Theory (Per Hour)
- £39 Confined Pool (Per Hour)
- £150 Open Water (Per Day)

Scuba Courses Responsibilities

If the student completes all course work assigned, arrives for class promptly, and otherwise follows directions for learning given by the instructor, Scuba Courses accepts responsibility for learning challenges.

All course objectives must be met before the student can be certified.

Your instructor and support staff agree to:

- Be ready to start the class as scheduled.
- Answer the students questions to the best of their ability
- Provide a positive and fun learning environment in which to master course objectives.
- Be patient and assist the student through learning challenges.

It is further agreed that I, the undersigned, am responsible for any equipment loaned to me throughout the duration of my course and acknowledge that my course is provided in accordance with Scuba Courses Terms and Conditions of business.

All outstanding balances must be paid to Scuba Courses prior to receiving certification.

Scuba Courses Terms & Conditions

Scuba Courses offer a wide range of recreational and technical dive courses, experiences, and diving holidays. Please ensure that you read and agree to our terms of business prior to enrolling onto any program or trip. If you are unsure or have any questions regarding any of our terms and conditions, please contact us.

This document must be read and agreed to prior to the commencement of your experience, course or trip with Scuba Courses.

- Scuba Courses reserves the right to vary or cancel, at their discretion, a course, or its content, where the circumstances or weather necessitate without incurring any liability.
- For PADI experience programmes, PADI Discover Scuba, PADI Discover Snorkelling & PADI Bubblemaker full payment is required at the time of booking. Payments for these programmes are strictly non-refundable, however the session may be transferred to another date if a minimum of 7 days' notice is given, and an alternate date is booked. If less than 7 days notice is given, this will be deemed as a cancellation and no alternate date or refund will be issued.
- For all other PADI programmes a deposit is required at the time of booking. Deposits for these programmes are strictly non-refundable, however the course(s) may be rescheduled to another date if a minimum of 14 days' notice is given, and alternate date(s) are booked. If less than 14 days notice is given, this will be deemed a cancellation and the full course fee will be payable with no alternate dates offered. Any relevant course materials will be issued upon receipt of the course deposit(s). The full balance of the course(s) must be received a minimum of 14 days prior to the start date of the course(s), unless otherwise agreed in writing..
- All outstanding balances must be paid to Scuba Courses prior to receiving certification.
- All course administration forms, including, but not limited to these Terms & Conditions, Learning Agreement, Course Booking Form, Medical Statement and PADI Safe Diving Practices must be completed prior to undertaking any training. Failure to complete the necessary documentation correctly will delay training and will be subject to our rescheduling fees as outlined below.
- All students participating in PADI programmes that include in-water training are required to complete a PADI Medical Statement. Any known medical condition(s) must be declared and notified to Scuba Courses prior to the start of any water-based dive course/experience. Failure to declare medical conditions in accordance with the PADI Medical Statement which then later becomes known will result in student suspension from the course until a satisfactory medical certificate has been obtained. If medical clearance by a physician is required, it is the student's responsibility to ensure that this obtained in advance of the course/experience start date. Failure to obtain medical clearance in time for the course/experience start date will delay training and will be subject to our rescheduling fees as outlined below.
- Any costs incurred by Scuba Courses, including, but not limited to facilities hire, course materials, equipment hire, travel or accommodation will be deducted/charged to the student upon cancellation of any course/program or trip/holiday, regardless of notice period given.
- Scuba Courses does NOT provide transport to the Open Water dive sites. We will make every effort to try and get you a car share with another student but if this is not possible you will be expected to make your way to the site by your own means.
- Any costs payable to third parties in connection with your training will be your responsibility, unless otherwise stated. These include (but are not limited to), travel, dive site entrance fees, boat fees, food, drink & accommodation.

- Transfer of course dates requested by the student prior to the start date of the course will incur a £50 (per student) handling fee. Transfer of course dates requested by the student on/after the start date of the course will be either:
 - deemed a cancellation & will incur the full course fee including the cost of any supplied course training materials.
 - or; charged at the rates outlined below
- If any event outside of Scuba Courses control, including, but not limited to, weather, war, acts of terrorism, fire, explosion, epidemic/widespread illness, industrial action or insolvency causes any course/trip to be delayed, cancelled or changed, Scuba Courses will not be held liable for any consequential loss or expense incurred by the student and any refund made will be subject to the deduction of reasonable expenses incurred by Scuba Courses.
- For all recreational courses, we will provide all the required basic equipment, unless specifically stated otherwise. This includes weight system, exposure suit (Open Water only), Cylinder, BCD, Regulator, Mask, Fins, Snorkel, Hood & Gloves. Additional equipment requirements will be supplied if available, otherwise you will be responsible for supplying any equipment needed to complete training. This includes (but is not limited to), Torch, Compass, Computer, SMB, Reel, Camera, Lift Bag & Slates.
- Lost or damaged equipment whilst under the responsibility of the student must be paid for by the student at the full market value.
- Personal Possessions - Scuba Courses will not be held responsible for the loss/damage of any personal possessions during any activities at any location.
- Enrolling & paying the course fee does not guarantee that the student will meet the required standards for certification within the schedule of the course. In the event that certification requirements are not met, no refund will be given. If additional training sessions are required to enable the student to meet the required standards for certification, the student agrees to pay the following additional charges:

Missed / Rearranged Sessions

- £25 Theory (Per Hour)
- £39 Confined Pool (Per Hour)
- £150 Open Water (Per Day)
